GMAT

www.mba.com

The GMAT exam includes analytical writing assessment, quantitative, and verbal sections. Data sufficiency and problem solving questions are intermingled throughout the quantitative section, and sentence correction, reading comprehension, and critical reasoning questions are intermingled throughout the verbal section. The verbal and quantitative sections contain computer-adaptive multiple-choice questions. For the analytical writing assessment, you will be presented with two essay topics and will type your responses using the computer keyboard. Scores are valid for 5 years.

Fee: $250

Registration: Go to www.mba.com or call 1-800-717-GMAT (4628) to schedule an appointment to take the GMAT.

Dates: The GMAT is self-scheduled and administered at test centers. Go to www.mba.com to locate your preferred test center.

LSAT

www.lsac.org

The LSAT is a half-day standardized test and consists of five 35-minute sections of multiple choice questions. It is designed to measure reading and comprehension of complex texts with accuracy and insight, the organization and management of information and the ability to draw reasonable inferences from it, the ability to think critically, and the analysis and evaluation of the reasoning and arguments of others. LSAT scores are valid for 3 years.

Fee: $160

Registration: Go to www.lsac.org or call 215.968.1001.

Dates: The test is offered four times a year (June, October, December, and February).

MCAT

www.aamc.org/mcat

The MCAT is a four and a half hour test offered only on the computer. There are four sections; the verbal reasoning, physical sciences and biological sciences sections consist of multiple choice questions and the writing sample consists of two essays. MCAT scores are valid for 3 years.

Fee: $240

Registration: Go to www.aamc.org/mcat.

Dates: The test is offered several times a year. The closest testing site to Wake Forest is in Greensboro. Go to www.aamc.org/mcat for a list of test dates and locations.